LUNCHEON HONORS NORTHERN GUEST

Mrs. Charles Heywood of Berkeley, wife of the Torrance district governor, was entertained with an attractively appointed luncheon given in her honor by members of the Rotary Anns at the home of Mrs. R. R. Smith, 2004 Carson street, Thursday. Marigolds were used throughout the rooms and at the luncheon tables, and covers were arranged for the honor guest and Mrs. F. M. Buffington, Mrs. Harvel Guttenfelder, Mrs. Floyd Haskill, Mrs. L. B. Kelsey, Mrs. N. A. Lenke, Mrs. Sam Levy, Mrs. George Peckham, Mrs. F. L. Parks, Mrs. Grover C. Whyte and the hostess. At bridge Mrs. Heywood received a great prize, while Mrs. Kelsey was presented with a prize for high score.

DANCING PARTY AT BEACH

More than 50 members of Torrance Woman's Club, their husbands and friends, enjoyed a large party at Mandarin ballroom, Redondo Beach, Saturday evening. The club plans to sponsor a series of these dances throughout the winter months.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY AT BRIDGE TEA

The home of Mrs. Jay M. Allen on Anapola avenue provided the setting for a delightfully appointed bridge tea given Friday afternoon as a benefit for the auxiliary of Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital and attended by more than 50 auxiliary members and their friends. Cut flowers, used throughout the rooms, accented a decorative note. Awards for high score were received by Mrs. F. L. Parks and Mrs. Sam Levy, while Mrs. Willis M. Brooks received a consolation.

O. E. S. TONIGHT

The stated meeting of Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held at Masonic Temple this evening, Thursday, January 26. All members and visiting stars are invited to attend. A program will follow the meeting.

MRS. HEMMATH IS FETTERED

Mrs. H. G. Hemmath of Los Angeles and formerly of Torrance was surprised when members of her sewing club entertained for her at her home Monday on the occasion of her birthday. Following a 1:00 o'clock luncheon, Mrs. E. A. Schwartz played a piano group and the balance of the afternoon was spent quilting. Included were the honor guest and her mother, Mrs. Bain, of Toledo, Ohio, Mrs. F. D. Meachling, Mrs. A. Barber, Mrs. C. Meering, Mrs. E. Schwartz, Mrs. J. O. Bartz, Mrs. Ed Little, Mrs. J. Stella L. Nelson Attends National Bridge Confab

To Give Instructions In Torrance Studio Upon Return From San Francisco

Stella L. Nelson will leave tomorrow to attend the national contract bridge convention in San Francisco to be held all next week. The convention and instructions to advanced bridge devotees will be personally directed by Ely Culbertson, internationally recognized bridge authority. Mrs. Nelson plans to spend the entire week in San Francisco studying the latest developments in contract bridge playing.

Upon her return from the convention, Stella L. Nelson will begin classes and individual instructions to beginners and advanced players in her studio, 1323 Beech street, every Monday afternoon and evening. Arrangements for participating in these instructions may be made any time now by telephoning Torrance 367.

Mrs. Nelson is an associate of the Culbertson Studios and is a certified instructor in the approach-forcing system of contract bridge. Her reputation as an instructor of unusual ability is recognized throughout the South Bay district. She has recently been engaged by the Robinson Hotel in Long Beach to give class and individual instructions at the hotel studio every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons.

MUSICAL-TEA SUNDAY AFTERNOON

One of the loveliest affairs of the season was a musicale and tea, sponsored by Redondo Woman's Club, at Redondo Beach Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Arthur Tytus as hostess. The program opened with a piano group by Mme. Teala Billini, concert pianist, who presented Schubert's "Impromptu in B Flat Major," "Capriccio in B Minor," Brahms, and MacDowell's "Monn Schein." A cello group by Miss Eunice Wood of Lomita, accompanied by Mrs. Ella MacPhail, followed. Presentations by Ira D. Morgan, baritone, Donna Peterson, dancer, and Verna Redmon, soprano, followed. Mrs. Maizie Garrett chairman of the dramatic section of the Cosmos Club at Los Angeles, then read Sir James Barrie's "The Twelve Pound Look." The program was concluded with a group by Mme. Billini, including "Arabesque No. 1," Debussy, "Dreamers' Tales No. 1," of Peterkin, "Ecohes de Vienne," by Sauer. Incidental music was furnished by a quartet from U. S. C. composed of cello, flute and violin with piano accompaniment.
